Glastonbury House

Somerset, UK

If you're looking for a swish pad in the country, it doesn't come much better than this!

Situated in a leafy residential area on the edge of a village and within walking distance of the local pub, this lovingly designed property was built 5 years ago by its owners.

The property is an authentically styled Georgian house with a Victorian brick extension and it's the perfect place for the discerning guest to escape the hustle and bustle of city life.

Relax in your own sophisticated party house with a magnificent open plan kitchen which has more than a hint of luxury! Opening onto a stunning Orangery, it truly is, a foodies heaven! Mingle comfortably with and impress your guests over a glass or two!

Receptions areas also boast an elegant dining room for more formal evenings and a calm and relaxing sitting room – the perfect place to serve aperitifs.

All of the downstairs rooms are served by a surround sound, multi room music system and there is underfloor heating throughout.

About the owners:

With more than a passing interest in traditional features, contemporary design and stylish interiors, John & Lesley have designed and built the most beautiful family home for themselves and visiting guests to enjoy.

5 years ago, their vision was to create a sophisticated family and party house with all modern amenities and the result is enviable!

Internally the property is finished in a contemporary style with each room lovingly and individually designed using lush fabrics and fixtures and fittings to create individual and elegant stylish living spaces and relaxing bedrooms with en-suite facilities.

They hope that you will enjoy their home as much as they do.
