OVERVIEW

The Old Chapel is a beautifully designed and sympathetically converted 19th century Methodist chapel, situated on the river within the picturesque village of Upwell in Norfolk. Perfect for bringing friends and families together offering huge social spaces to entertain in and everything that you could possibly need for a fabulous weekend away.

As you step into the Old Chapel you are greeted with a truly magnificent reception room with high ceilings, the original timber floor and a large stone fireplace with log burner. The dining table seats 12 - 14 comfortably and there are two lounge areas, one with a television and the other with views across the river.

On the first floor you will find four King size bedrooms and above that, the attic is a huge open plan loft suite with one King size bed and a King size sofa bed as well as a lounging area with sofas and a television.
